

World History Puzzle

History is like a puzzle. Everything fits together in a puzzle in a way that makes sense, but you have to understand how everything fits. Sometimes, when we're making the "historical puzzle" we forget to look for the clues like we would when actually making a puzzle.

Assignment: Create a puzzle that contains the pieces listed below. The chart also helps to explain how these ideas all connect. This assignment will be a part of every unit that you complete this year.

Each Puzzle Piece must have:	Description:	Where to get it:
1. Title	1. The word(s) that tell what the puzzle piece is about	1. Assignment title
2. Definition	2. A student written definition of what it was. This should be less than 2 sentences	2. Notes
3. Picture	3. A picture that shows what the puzzle piece is about.	3. Internet or hand-drawn from #2
4. Dates	4. Approximately when that period was	4. Internet search
5. Influential Person	5. One person who had a strong influence on the development of that time period.	5. Internet search or notes
6. Quote by person	6. Something that person said that describes the period or attitude of people during that time.	6. Internet search
7. Connection	7. An explanation of how that time period was caused by the one which occurred before it.	7. #1 on the notes sheet titled the same as the puzzle piece

Need Help? <https://youtu.be/iuWnE-qwoY>

18 Point Effort (C-)	20 Point Effort (B-)	25 Point Effort (A+)
*Puzzle piece is on lined paper and done in pencil OR *One or two elements are missing OR *There are one or two minor inaccuracies OR *The puzzle piece does not connect to other puzzle pieces	*Puzzle piece is done on blank paper and construction paper AND *All elements are present with only one or two minor inaccuracies AND *The puzzle piece connects to other pieces	*Puzzle piece is done on blank and construction paper AND *Puzzle piece is totally correct and missing no elements AND *The puzzle piece is neat and creative